Press release

PLUS RH joins ERGALIS, the build-up platform created by Activa Capital dedicated to the French Human Resources sector

Ergalis, the build-up platform in the Human Resources sector created by Activa Capital has acquired Plus RH, taking the combined group turnover to €120 million.

In September 2010, Ergalis made its first acquisition with Selpro which specialises in temporary staffing solutions for small and medium-sized companies, acquired from Randstad.

Created in 1970, Plus RH is a recruitment and temporary employment specialist operating in the service industry. It is a well-known brand whose expertise is highly recognized by bank and insurance companies as well as many other large groups which rely on its ability to supply qualified administrative staff.

The founder of Plus RH becomes a shareholder in Ergalis and joins the Supervisory Committee.

Philippe Latorre, Partner at Activa Capital, said: « We are very happy with this build-up acquisition. Plus RH brings its expertise in the French speciality temporary employment sector which extends Ergalis' sector specialisations. Ergalis will continue to develop both via acquisitions and organic growth. »
